

THE PROMPT-

July 2013- Abridged version

Subs are Due

First and foremost I have to remind you that if you haven't paid subs, they fell due at the AGM and you have until the end of July to pay them or, your membership will be deemed to have lapsed!!!! Our Membership Secretary, Joyce Basset, is waiting to receive them.

By now, you should have received the information on the NODA Theatre Day for youngsters in Yeovil on 10th August and you will also be aware that CDDG are sponsoring 3 of our junior members aged 8-11years ie: we will pay their fee of £25 each plus a contribution towards travel costs. I have included the information again later in this issue, in case anyone hasn't seen it or has deleted it in error. All enquiries should go to Paul Barker on 08454 500296. This is an excellent opportunity to learn more about the world of drama and musical theatre. As you will see, we are asking the successful candidates to send me a report on their day so that I can include it in The Prompt.

Your committee does not meet during August, so there will be no issue of The Prompt until after the meeting in September. However, if anything that you need to know arises between the two issues, we will, of course, notify you. ED:

KARNON KIDZ KORNER:

NODA THEATRE DAY FOR YOUNGSTERS, Yeovil, Somerset – 10th August 2013

Recently I sent you the attached flier with information on the next NODA Theatre Day for youngsters. Are you interested???? Would you like to go????

If so and you are aged 11 - 18 years, you can apply for CDDG sponsorship. The Committee have agreed to sponsor 3 of our Junior members, that means that CDDG will pay the £25 fee and make a contribution towards travelling costs.

Now are you interested??? Then please contact Paul Barker - 08454 500296 before 19th July.

You may recall that we did this last year for the workshop held in St Ives. The three successful applicants were asked to send in a report on their day and we will be asking the same of this year's candidates. Last year's day was a great success and thoroughly enjoyed by our people. I am sure this year will be equally as good. So as we said in the initial notice from Kathy West who is our NODA area rep:-

“Do not miss this wonderful workshop opportunity to explore material and themes from the London smash hit musical ‘Wicked’. Based on the novel by Gregory Maguire that re-imagined the stories and characters in ‘The Wonderful Wizard of Oz’, this unforgettable musical tells the untold story of the Witches of Oz, and how one came to be called ‘good’ and the other ‘wicked’.

Participants of the NODA Southwest Youth Musical Theatre workshop will learn vocal and singing skills, character movement and physicality, and create their own choreography in addition to that taught by our workshop leaders. Reference will be made to the themes within the show through text but the central focus in this workshop is on creating a performance.”

So come on Guys, Go For It and contact Paul a.s.a.p.

NB If you have already applied direct to NODA and paid, still contact Paul about sponsorship.

1 Act Play Festival 2014

1 ACT PLAY READING: New Date:

We now have a new date for the reading of the 2 One Act plays that we are considering for the 2014 Festival.

It is Tuesday July 30th in South Room, Perranwell Village Hall at 7 for 7.15pm. Please note that this will be a reading only, of both plays. It is NOT an audition. Auditions will come later.

The two plays are – “Just Hear My Voice” by Caitlin Rose & “Ghosts of Bedlam” by Arthur Aldrich.

We look forward to seeing you and refreshments will be available.

Finally:-

Summer has arrived, so have a lovely time while it lasts and as I always say, DON'T FORGET THE SUN SCREEN and I shouldn't have to mention this but, please DON'T LEAVE DOGS ALONE IN CARS, even for a few minutes.
